CONSENT DECREE

This action was instituted by the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (hereinafter, the "EEOC") against Ruby Tuesday, Inc., (hereinafter, the "Defendant") pursuant to Section 107(a) of the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, 42 U.S.C. § 12117(a) (hereinafter, the "ADA") and the Civil Rights Act of 1991, 42 U.S.C. § 1981(a) to remedy the alleged wrongful employment practices identified in the Complaint filed in this action.

This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this action and of the parties to this action.

The Commission alleged in this civil action that the Defendant acted unlawfully by discriminating against Paula Ardito and Lisa Webb on the basis of disability in violation of the ADA. In its Complaint, the Commission sought make-whole relief including, but not limited to, compensatory damages, punitive damages, injunctive, and other affirmative relief. The Defendant denies the allegations made by the Commission, and disputes and denies any liability to the Commission or to any other persons. All of the parties to this action desire to avoid the additional expense, delay, and uncertainty that would result from the continuance of this litigation and desire to formulate a plan to be embodied in this Consent Decree which will promote and effectuate the purposes of the ADA.

This Court has reviewed the terms of the proposed Consent Decree in light of the pleadings and the applicable law and regulations, and has approved this Consent Decree as one which will promote and effectuate the purposes of the ADA.

Now, therefore, this Court, being fully advised in the premises, it is hereby ORDERED, ADJUDGED, AND DECREED:

I. NON-DISCRIMINATION AND NON-RETALIATION

Defendant is enjoined from discriminating against any employee or affected group member in any aspect of employment and shall not retaliate against any person because that person is a beneficiary of the Consent Decree, or has provided information or assistance, or has participated in any other manner in any investigation or proceeding relating to this Consent Decree.

Defendant, to ensure equal opportunity in the employment process, shall make all decisions affecting hiring, promotion, compensation, job assignment, sick and disability leave, discharge, and other terms, conditions, and privileges of employment, without regard to race, color, sex, pregnancy, religion, national origin, age, or disability status.

Within forty-five (45) days from the entry of this decree, Defendant shall instruct its management and supervisory personnel regarding the full meaning of those notices and this Consent Decree.
